Q: What languages do the coaches speak at camp?

A: The Fundación Real Madrid Campus Experience Camp is taught in Spanish only. However, a few coaches/staff and monitors speak some Basic English during each session. For many years, we have had participants coming from all over the world and a lot of them do not speak Spanish but acclimate very well to the camp as there has not been any language barrier in the past.

Q: What is Campus Experience?

A: Campus Experience are summer camps offered by Real Madrid Foundation to all children from 7 to 17 years old who want to enjoy a perfect combination of sports and learning through training sessions with coaches from Real Madrid Foundation, as well as recreational and educational activities in the facilities of Valdebebas and the European University of Madrid.

Q: Which values does the camp convey?

A: Through different activities, participants are going to learn the “value of the day”. Beginning with values of “Me”: Leadership, Self-control and Effort, which lead to the values linked to the group or team “We”: Teamwork, Participation and Comradeship, up to the point where these latter values are well-established to transmit those related to “They”: Respect, Tolerance, Solidarity.

Q: What is the difference between Technification and Standard Camp?

A: In the case of Technification participants, they may have one more hour for trainings. The level of training sessions is superior as well as the level of their teammates in comparison to other campus, since the main requirement is to be associated or member of a club or league, so training will be adapted to the group level.

Q: How do sports and learning combine?

A: The binomial of sports and learning is achieved through trainings and activities which transmit the 5 ethical pillars of the club: teamwork, leadership, respect for others, self-control and effort.

Q: Who are the coaches and instructors that work with children?

A: Our faculty comes with coaches of Real Madrid Foundation graduated and certificated in physical and sport activities sciences, sport technicians and support personnel including pedagogues, teachers, instructors and leisure supervisors.

Q: Are coaches really from Real Madrid?

A: Yes, all professional coaches are from Real Madrid Foundation.

Q: How are the values transmitted?

A: Every day through the activities planned, participants will learn the values associated to Real Madrid's Football Club whilst relating them to sports, to our Campus Experience and to our personal life.

Q: Which are the recreational and educational activities practiced by participants?

A: As a fixed activity for all residential and day camps of Madrid we have planned the Tour of Santiago Bernabéu Stadium and participants of the 2 week residential camp will enjoy the Madrid city tour. Every day throughout their stay at camp in the "Feel Experience" activities we will play a game where participants can sense everyday's value. For example, on the "team work" day, we will make a Gymkhana for team building where in order to win, it is necessary to overcome a series of tasks which highlight the team's union. The day for "Self-control" we will play "One to Win" where participants have to demonstrate their capacity to control their nerves under pressure. The "Fun Experience" activities embrace different short plays arranged in a space. Each participant can choose any play for example, foot-volley, foot-baseball, foot-rugby and other plays not related to soccer. In "Team Experience" activities we will gather up everything done throughout the day.

Each instructor will have certain talks with participants to get to know what they have experienced in different activities and how they relate these feelings with the value of the day.

Q: Which sport activities do participants practice?

A: Sport activities are supervised by Real Madrid Foundation technical team. On Field Training sessions of Campus Experience are composed on average of: 90 min training in the morning and 60 min training in the afternoon. (additional Off Field Sports Activities are done also). The contents for the sports education include: level tests (the physical training of the player, nutrition, rest, hygiene...), individual technique (pass, control, leading...), decision-making (sports psychology, football injuries...), tactic (strategy, play trials, transitions, attack, defense...) and competition (training for the competition, football rules...). The intensity and length of the different training areas vary depending on the camp's module.

Q: Where is the receptive point for pick up and drop off of Participants located?

A: The receptive point for pick up and drop off is at the Santiago Bernabéu for all residential camps and day camps.

Q: How do you organize the transfer from the airport in case the participant travels alone?

A: If the participant travels alone the camp can arrange the extra service and camp staff will be in charge of receiving the participant at the arrival terminal and then taking him directly to the residence where he will be accompanied by the camp's instructors and other children.

In case of the return, the same way, camp staff will be in charge of the transfer to the airport (or other parting point). In case of returning, if the participant doesn't have the service of accompanied minors, camp staff may contract this directly with the airline company.

This service consists of:

Pick up at the airport, bus or train station by camp instructors

Transfer to the residence in the private vehicle of the Campus

Transfer from the residence to the airport, bus or train station, accompanied by instructors all the time. The instructor accompanies the participant up to the place where he will meet the hosts of accompanied minors who'll take full responsibility of them

To apply for this service we will need you to send us some documents with all the information about the flight.

Q: Is it necessary to know how to play soccer to register to one of our camps?

A: It's not indispensable to know how to play soccer. The camps are designed for all children and participants to receive the same treatment except on the Technification camps where participants have to be associated with a club.

Q: Can my child stay one more week?

A: Of course, the minimum period of the camp is one week from Monday to Friday, in the case of day camps and from Sunday to Saturday in the case of residential ones. Given that residential camps finish on Saturdays and start on Sundays, for all those participants who don't want to or cannot go back home the camp offers an extra night service (additional fee required). Participants will be accompanied by camp instructors and will have extra activities and meals included. There is NO need for this service if the camp lasts 2 weeks.

Q: How many weeks can my child attend for?

A: We advise you to only send your child for a maximum of two consecutive weeks. This is due to the busy training schedule throughout the week and after two weeks children tend to get tired, homesick, or possibly injured. Children staying two weeks will be able to go on excursions during the weekend to a local place of interest or Santiago Bernabeu Stadium in Madrid. There will usually be time for shopping at the stadium's store. All excursions are fully supervised by camp staff.

Q: How many participants form one group?

A: Groups consist of 20 participants.

Q: How many participants are assigned to each coach?

A: Every coach has one group of 20 children, maximum.

Q: How many participants are assigned to every monitor?

A: Every group (20 children) has 2 instructors assigned.

Q: Do participants receive an evaluation once they finish the camp?

A: Only in case of the Technification camp where participants will be evaluated through a series of physical tests carried out during their stay. A report will be provided to the Technification participants at the end of their camp.

Q: Do participants need a medical certificate?

A: No, with the exception of participants who have allergies and/or other health problems. In this case, you will have to send us the certificate that indicates the problem and how to deal with it.

Q: Can participants be picked up directly in the residence?

A: No. For logistic, security and organizational reasons it is not possible to pick up the participants at the residences. Participants of residential camps will be handed over and picked up at the Santiago Bernabéu Stadium. If you are not able to be at the meeting point at the agreed time, we suggest the camp transfer service where the camp staff takes participants to the airport/bus station/train.

Q: Is it possible to buy an extra kit?

A: Yes, it is possible; you'll just have to request it in written form to our email.

Q: Can you send me the invitation letter in order to complete the visa procedures?

A: Without any problem, you can apply for it when the enrollment is completed (send us an email for this request). In case you have been rejected to get the visa, we will reimburse you the total amount (less an administration fee of US$100) always when you provide evidence the rejection of your visa with a denial letter from the Spanish Embassy.

Q: Will children be given a kit?

A: Yes, each participant will get the kit of REAL MADRID FOUNDATION as a present, also a photo souvenir and a diploma.

Q: Will there be any scouts at the camp?

A: The same as in the case of player' visits, we can't foresee the visits of scouts. This is unpredictable and can happen, but we can never guarantee this.

Q: Can participants abandon the camp before it has finished?

A: An anticipated departure can be allowed for reasons of force majeure and appropriately evidenced. In this case, the tutor will have to request this in written form (via email) and to follow the established procedure. For security reasons, this procedure is VERY SERIOUS and should be completed correctly.

Q: My child has serious health problems. Is his enrollment possible in this case?

A: There would be no inconveniences whenever the doctor allows it. For the camp, the health, well-being and security of camp participants are the most important things, which is why the camp has to make sure there is no risk for the participant and that the camp's coaches and instructors can take proper care of your child.

We will need you to ask your doctor for a report which indicates if it is ok to do sports under our camp' conditions, along with the description of the problem your child has and how to treat it if needed. This report will be analyzed by the camp's team in order to evaluate if the participant can join the camp with no risks and if so, you may be able to proceed with the enrollment procedures.
